MUR # 6662

Affidavit of Shawn C. Phillips

On this day, Shawn C. Phillips appeared before me, the undersigned notary public, and after I administered an oath to the said affiant, the affiant did swear and state as follows:

1. My name is Shawn C. Phillips. I am over 18 years of age and am competent to make this affidavit. I have knowledge of the following facts, which are true and correct.
2. Attached hereto as Exhibit A are true and correct copies of mass marketing emails that were sent by an email service paid for by Heidi for Texas, Inc., a Texas specific purpose political committee with the sole designated purpose of electing Heidi Thiess to the Texas Legislature. Heidi for Texas, Inc. is not registered with the Federal Election Commission.
3. Attached as Exhibit B are true and correct copies of mass marketing emails that were sent by an email service paid for by the Heidi Thiess campaign. The Heidi Thiess campaign was a campaign to elect Ms. Thiess to the Texas Legislature in 2012. The Heidi Thiess campaign is not registered with the Federal Election Commission.
4. The emails contained in Exhibit B contain references to and electronically piggybacked upon a website, www.heidifortexas.com, which according to campaign finance reports filed with the Texas Ethics Commission, was paid for by the specific purpose committee Heidi for Texas, Inc. Heidi for Texas, Inc. is not registered with the Federal Election Commission. Campaign finance reports indicate further that the campaigns purchased electronic advertising to drive additional traffic to the site.
5. Exhibit A and Exhibit B are political communications advocating on behalf of federal election candidates, including candidate for Texas Senate Ted Cruz, candidate for U.S. Congress Robert Gonzalez, candidate for U.S. Congress Felicia Harris, candidate for U.S. Congress Wes Riddle, and candidate for U.S. Congress Steve Stockman.
6. The Federal Election Commission defines regulated electronic communications to include emails of more than 500 substantially similar communications. Upon information and belief, the emails contained in Exhibit A and Exhibit B were distributed to more than 500 email addresses in substantially similar form and therefore were regulated communications.
7. As detailed in the Special Notices on Political Ads and Solicitations, published by the FEC in October 2006 and available via the FEC's website, "bulk electronic email (defined as electronic mail with more than 500 substantially similar communications)" must contain a disclosure. Such disclosure, in the event the communication was not approved by the candidate being advertised, must state that they are "not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee." The electronic communications attached as Exhibit A and Exhibit B contained no such disclaimers.

8. Further, upon information and belief, the total cost to maintain accounts with the mass email distribution services, maintain the website they were linked to, and purchase other electronic advertising (including Facebook ads) driving traffic to those sites exceeded $250. Such expenditures were used to promote the election of candidates to federal office. Accordingly, Heidi Thiess and Heidi for Texas Campaign, Inc. should have filed FEC Form 5 with the Commission, reporting the contributions and expenditures from these campaigns, but no such reports were filed, apparently in violation of federal election law.

Further affiant sayeth not.

Shawn C. Phillips

NRA Political Victory Fund Rates Heidi an "A"!

By Heidi Thiess

I'd like to thank the National Rifle Association for their kind letter that I received giving me an "A" for my strong and uncompromising stance for the Second Amendment of our Constitution. The right to keep and bear arms is a fundamental right and as your next State Representative, I will work to undo the federally regulated mandates handed down to the State that infringes on this inalienable right as well as ensure that our rights here in our beloved Texas remain in place. There is a massive push from the gun control advocates to not only take our arms away from us but to regulate our ammunition as well. I will stand toe-to-toe and defend our rights!

Remember, I don't just talk about the Second Amendment - I LIVE IT!

Take a look at the full letter from the NRA here:

Listen up and hear me well! This is a critical time for our nation, and too many people are sitting back to let others do the hard work. So it's time for all of us to put some gas in it and persuade all eligible gun owners to register. That's why I volunteered my time to film the ad shown here. Now it's your turn and I want to see results! Start now by sending this message to everyone you know who supports the Second Amendment. I expect 110% right now from everyone who values our freedoms!

Sign Etiquette

I'm going on the record: My opponents have had their yard and road signs out since before Christmas. Way too long, really. I have watched bemused as they have defaced, stolen, or blocked each others' signs, as if they were naughty little boys that needed a paddling. But now, as I carefully place MY campaign signs, scrimped and saved for from YOUR donations, I recognize such behavior for what it is: cheating and criminal. It's not funny, it's not cute, and it's not fair. It is, in fact, downright DIRTY POLITICS! And I won't tolerate it. I've watched entire roadways of signs for TeaParty Republican candidates go missing, and who is to blame? The flotilla of Establishment candidates that oppose them, or just one nasty person who knows he can't win without cheating?

Home the Troops from Iraq and Afghanistan

Note from Heidi: Hello everyone! There is a welcome home parade for Iraq and Afghanistan veterans on Saturday at 4 PM in Houston. The parade will start around Texas and San Jacinto, will go north on Crawford, and end up at Minute Maid Park. All the soldiers will march onto the field, before the game. And then a General will throw out the first pitch. It would be great if lots of people could go to say thank you to our troops! You can help show the rest of the country how Texas loves our troops!

Sunday Movie Night #2: Fixing America

Yes, it is Easter Sunday, but this is our most inspirational and uplifting film, and it will give you hope for restoring America. It's perfect for Easter Sunday.

LOCATION: Wings 'N More [\[MAP\]](#) 220 Gulf Freeway Frontage Rd, League City, TX 77573

DAYS: April 8, 2012

TIME: 6:30 - 8:30 PM Arrive at 6:30 to order your food. The movies will begin at 7 PM. You are welcome to stay afterward for discussion and networking.

What if regular Americans were asked for their ideas on how to fix America's problems? That's not the plot for a fictional movie, it is what Fixing America, an emotional and inspiring grassroots documentary shows, laying bare what everyday Americans realize; the political elites of both parties have destroyed the country financially.

Fixing America takes the viewer on an extraordinary journey across the byways of America where seemingly ordinary, yet truly exceptional folks bare all and offer solutions to fix this great country.

It doesn't matter, because what really matters is that such bad behavior reflects poorly on ALL Republicans. Republicans shouldn't have to act like thugs to win an election. Leave that junk to the Democrats! I know I don't have to tell MY supporters that true Conservatives are confident we will win on the issues, regardless of how many opponents' signs are littering the roadways! I know I am! Yes, it looks like Bonnen has wallpapered the county in his signs, but I know far more people who are annoyed and turned off by it, than any who are impressed with the gross amounts of money he's spending to buy this election.

One last point, all my signs are paid for with donated dollars and with my own family funds. That money is to be stewarded properly, and heck yeah, I'm going to have a BIG problem with any buffoon out there stealing stuff! Plus, they are carefully placed away from everyone else's signs, and my crews consists of me, my family, and my friends. I don't pay crews to do it for me. So, boys - you need to straighten up and fly right! You need to have a little talk with the crews you hire to litter your signs around the district so they don't do stupid crap like the photo above. NOT COOL. Such actions prove that you are running scared if you and/or your supporters have to resort to theft to gain

Early voting almost here!

As the campaigns gear up for the Primary Run-off, I've been actively working on several projects that I would like you to be a part of.

Only you can change the course of our Nation. Voting is the ultimate civic duty but you can also be a part of a mandate of conservative voices all over America and Texas. The more engaged you are in local events and campaigns, the better! Your participation sends a message to all candidates and organizations that you are no longer willing to remain silent!

This week, there are several opportunities for you to get involved. I hope to see you there!

Sick of the lies?

Me too!

In the past few weeks, I have seen the glossy mailers that have come out almost daily from the Greg Bonnen campaign. Knowing that he is not he now appears to not know how to put the cork on the bottle. the truth, Bonnen has resorted to lies and smear tactics against Ryan Sitton. Read the full truth here.

In the latest attacks in the CD 14 race, Felicia Harris is having to defend her record as a small government, fiscal conservative. Her opponent is claiming that she raised taxes during her tenure on Pearland City Council. The truth is, had Felicia won the vote at the last Pearland City Council budgetary meeting, taxes would be lower today than what they were when she went into office. Felicia voted against the tax increase and voted against the budget because it could not have been balanced without the tax increase or dipping into the city reserves.

In the ongoing mailer deluge from Ryan Dennard, he published claims against Mark Foster that he knew beforehand were not accurate. This careful parsing of innuendo to spin facts against an opponent is straight from Ken Clark's political playbook, and I won't support it.

What concerns me most going into the run-off election is that if a candidate resorts only to personal attacks and paid-for endorsements (influence peddling) then what will that candidate do in office? More lies to the voters? More personal attacks against those who oppose them? No

Early voting starts on Monday, July 23rd, and runs through Friday, July 27th. The Run-Off Election Day is on Tuesday, July 31st.

The polling locations may have changed. Please verify yours below. And remember, during early voting you can vote at any location but on Election Day you must vote at your precinct's polling location.

Also, the character defamation of Tea Party endorsed candidate, George Young, has reached extreme levels with his opponent, Kerry Neves. Neves states, "he now appears to not know how to put the cork on the bottle." This is unacceptable to every disabled individual in America! George Young is a true American hero who has not only fought for our country in Vietnam, but earned a Bronze Star for his service. Mr. Young was disabled in a criminal attack that left him partially paralyzed and Mr. Neves feels it is perfectly acceptable to mock his disability. George Young is the only qualified candidate and his opponent has nothing but smears and lies. As we all have noticed, Young's opponent has never once talked about the issues that we face with crime or judicial activism. If a candidate can't talk about the issues, they resort to vitriolic smears. Mr. Young deserves your vote.

Your vote counts for 19 others who didn't bother!

"Heidi Thless" <lianne@heidifortexas.com>

Voting Locations

Have you voted?

There is still time!

Did you know that in this run-off, your vote counts for 19 other apathetic citizens who didn't bother to vote? Turn-out for early voting in the Run-Off Election in Galveston County is down 18% from the Primary. I have to put out one more appeal to get out your vote! Don't let someone else vote for you! Be the ONE in TWENTY to do your civic duty!

I know there is a lot of confusion out there right now with most candidates doing their darnedest to claim Tea Party cred, even though guys like Greg Bonnen & David Dewhurst have never been to a Tea Party event in their lives! It's no coincidence that Bonnen and Dewhurst share the same hardball consultants out of Austin (Murphy-Turner) and have resorted to similarly desperate negative attacks to salvage the insane amounts of money they've spent to buy this election (which I warned about). And now, with generically named false flag PACs popping up to offer their unsolicited two cents, you may just throw your hands up in frustration. Don't let any of that deter you from your civic duty! You can't rely upon any of the PACs, mailers, radio ads, or commercials. You don't know who they are, who is behind their questionable operations, and what their motivation is. So ignore them and find people you trust with skin in the game.

One such inspiring activist is JoAnn Fleming. You all may recognize her name because she was the keynote speaker at the July 17th Clear Lake Town Hall and her speech was entitled "End the Austin Fairytale." She also recently wrote a strongly worded press release warning you that "Sen. Dan Patrick Does Not Speak For Us!"

Without a doubt, JoAnn is active and knowledgeable in state

Heidi Thiess Recommendations

My own recommendations, as someone with considerable skin in the game, are included in the right sidebar of this email, with links to each candidate for your own info. You can rest assured I am currying no favor with anyone with my list - on purpose! And I very deliberately stepped outside the carefully parsed and politically correct world of perpetual candidates to say what I mean, despite popular opinion. The reasons for my picks are here.

See the links I provided in the sidebar for more info on the candidates I am recommending for your vote. My recommendations are eclectic, personal, and do not conform to any herd mentality. There are bound to be a few surprises in there!

I don't fancy myself the arbiter of anyone's vote, nor do I think I hold all that much sway. But I do have some inside information due to my experience on the campaign trail that folks have told me they are interested in. I have taken the time to track down claims made in public and private, and I don't put much stock in labels - they just blur the reality.

I don't expect a single soul out there to agree with me 100% on every recommendation. We shouldn't! Group think gets us nowhere! Remember, I always promised transparency so you would know what I'm thinking and why. Of course we all won't agree all the time on every thing. I'm just trying to give you a glimpse of what I've gleaned behind the scenes - my own perspective. Thus, you can take or leave any of this as you see fit. Hopefully, it is of some use to you.

*To be absolutely clear, NO ONE has paid for my endorsement, nor offered influence in return for my support. This is my singular opinion based upon my own experiences. I do not condone influence peddling, nor engage in it. These recommendations are free and clear, with no strings attached.

Please remember to vote tomorrow. You can make a difference!

Patriotically yours,

Heidi
